
Points are saved descriptive summaries, without Monte Carlo intervals for these SD/SE quantities. Both panels use identical y limits.
Empirical SD and RMS reported SE use the same interval-valid subset. All parameters/designs are retained in calibration.csv.
The working-model uncertainty does not constitute a robust dependence-aware covariance calculation.