
Both denominators are all R planned paths. Availability is joint across the three parameters; optimizer success alone does not establish point or interval validity. Bars are pointwise 95% Wilson Monte Carlo intervals. The full ordered failure export retains every unavailable record, even when none occur.